

Sustainable Agriculture Education (SAgE) Program

New program !

Degree & cert. options coming soon !

Core courses

Orientation & Employment Pathways Seminar

Principles of Agroecology: An Introduction to Sustainable Agriculture

Soil Science, Restoration & Conservation

Landscape Agroforestry: Integrating Forests & Farms

Forest Ecosystem Science, Management & Conservation

Food Systems Ethics, Justice & Policy

World Agricultural Systems & Development

Professional Internship

Pathways

Urban Food Systems

Urban Food
Systems Analysis

Biointensive
Gardening &
Mini-farming

Rural Farming Systems

Agricultural
Entrepreneurship
& Small Farm
Management

Sustainable Small
Acreage Farming
& Ranching

Farmland Ecological Restoration

Native Plant
Identification &
Classification

Introduction to Ecological Restoration

Study Abroad Opportunities

Agroforestry & Conservation in
the Tropics (ACT)
Program winter quarter and two-
week survey
options

For further inquiries about the SAgE Program

Please contact Jason Niebler, Program Director & Faculty Instructor, jniebler@sccd.ctc.edu.
Watch for future SAgE Program and course announcements in Environment and Botany sections of Class Schedules and in the Science And Math Division.